Summary

Hey there! I am a Data Science enthusiast and a Full Stack Developer with 5+ years of experience. I excel in Javascript, Typescript, React, Redux, Styled-Components, Tailwind, Bootstrap, Node.js, Express.js, Socket.io, MongoDB, Postgresql, REST APIs, and GraphQL.

My results speak volumes—I've led successful projects, from NFT marketplaces to decentralized finance platforms. Worldwide users and significant revenue prove my clean code and seamless user experiences.

I'm a quick learner and excellent communicator, so I understand your needs precisely. I thrive in fast-paced environments, delivering incremental changes that get fast feedback. Collaboration is my strength—I'll be your reliable partner in achieving your project's goals.

I'm passionate about impactful projects that make a difference. Building applications for E-tourism, E-Voting, NFT marketplaces, and more, I'm driven to positively impact families and organizations.

Joining your team means bringing my expertise, dedication, and desire for excellence. Let's craft incredible experiences together!

Excited to discuss your projects and make a meaningful impact!
